

Benefits to churches

Admission to certain Church of England schools

Your church's membership of the Evangelical Alliance can in some cases help to meet the admission criteria required by some Church of England schools.

Church listings facility on our website

Your church will be listed on our website. This is a popular facility for people looking for a local church.

Free events advertising

Your church's events will be listed and advertised for free under the Events section of our website.

Use of the 'Alliance members' logo

Your church can use the logo on your stationery and website, instantly helping people to identify you as part of our network.

Discounted training and seminars

Alliance provides heavily discounted training courses on how to help equip your church to engage with the local media

3 copies of idea magazine to circulate among your church congregation

You will receive 3 copies of the Alliance's membership magazine highlighting our resources and campaigns, with stories from our member churches and organisations to inspire you.

Information Service

You will have access to all kinds of information including registering as a charity, employing staff, finding Christian service providers and statistics to support sermons.

We connect you to a worldwide network of Christians

Membership of the Alliance links the European Evangelical Alliance and the World Evangelical Alliance and churches in 120 countries and regions.

Conflict arbitration

The Evangelical Alliance could facilitate conflict resolution between member churches when relationships become broken or damaged within the body of Christ

Free Student membership

Free Alliance membership for all higher education students for the 1st year and only £5 per year of study thereafter.

Gazetting

If your church needs listing in the London Gazette according to The Sharing of Church Buildings Act of 1969, you can have access to our gazetting service.
