alltogether we are the Evangelical Alliance,

"so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ". ROMANS 15.6

Members say:

The Alliance plays a vital role in representing the views of evangelicals to the Welsh Assembly. It gives credence to the Christian response to Government and acts as salt and light in this environment.

JULIAN HAINES, PENARTH, WALES

*We really appreciate being kept in touch with parliamentary affairs through idea magazine and being encouraged to make our views known to our MP.*

JOHN & GILL SHORE, ABINGDON, OXFORDSHIRE

You will be informed and resourced through idea the bi-monthly Alliance magazine, the website at www.eauk.org and events.

The Alliance provides an essential lifeline to those who want to transform society through Christianity as a radical lifestyle, influencing communities because of the impact that Jesus has made in individual lives. Through the work of the Alliance, individual members have a united voice. Together in the Alliance we continue to bring the ever-relevant and challenging message of Jesus to the heart of government and society.

Being involved in a number of interchurch organisations, I really appreciate the Alliance, because it's big enough to represent the wider evangelical wing of the Church with credibility.

PHIL ARBON, RENFREWSHIRE, SCOTLAND

I can be part of a positive change in our society. The Alliance makes a difference that I can't make on my own.

Mission

The mission of the Evangelical Alliance is clear and simple:

uniting evangelicals to present Christ credibly as good news for spiritual and social transformation.

A staff team cannot achieve such a goal alone. However, an alliance of evangelicals talking and living good news throughout the streets, towns and rural areas of the UK can!

Our invitation is to you! Please join us in praying and working for spiritual and social transformation – alltogether.

Visit our website www.eauk.org/join and declare your commitment to being good news along with thousands of others.
