

THE EVANGELICALISM AND FUNDAMENTALISM IN BRITAIN PROJECT

Christian Fundamentalism and British Evangelicalism: Exploring the Relationship

The Evangelicalism and Fundamentalism in Britain Project is hosting a one-day conference for scholars, ministers and the interested public at King's College Chapel, London, on Tuesday, 15 December 2009. The conference will consider the ways in which Evangelicalism and Fundamentalism have expressed themselves in the social and historical conditions of Britain and engage such questions as:

- Who have traditionally been Evangelicals and Fundamentalists?
- What doctrines have they upheld?
- What attitudes have they maintained?
- Have Evangelicals displayed the anger often considered characteristic of Fundamentalists?

THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS WILL BE

Professor Alister McGrath of King's College, London

'Evangelicalism, Fundamentalism and Science'

Dr Stephen Holmes of the University of St Andrews

'Evangelicalism, Fundamentalism and Theology'

Professor David Bebbington of the University of Stirling

'Evangelicalism and Fundamentalism in Britain'

For further information, including booking forms, please visit our website www.eauk.org/efb or email Andrew Tooley at efbproject@stir.ac.uk

The Evangelicalism and Fundamentalism in Britain Project is sponsored by the Religion and Society Programme of the AHRC and ESRC and the Evangelical Alliance. Cover illustration above (unknown illustrator) from the September 1931 issue of World-Wide Christian Courier.