

Thinking faithfully about politics

Appendix A: How likely are the following manifesto commitments to influence the way evangelicals vote?

	Much more likely to	Little more likely to	About the same	Little less likely to	Much less likely to
Reform the Equality Act to ensure that single sex spaces are protected on the basis of biological sex	56	27	14	2	2
Protect speech in the workplace about deeply held beliefs	55	32	11	1	1
Not to introduce assisted suicide	51	23	14	5	7
Prioritise 'freedom of religion or belief' in the UK's overseas relationships	44	37	18	1	<1
Increase the minimum wage to at least the real Living Wage	44	35	18	3	1
Restore overseas development aid to 0.7% of GDP	43	29	23	3	2
Introduce new safe and legal routes for people to claim asylum in the UK	42	35	17	4	2
Reduce the time limit on abortions to less than 24 weeks	42	24	20	8	6
Financial incentives in support of marriage	35	36	24	3	1
Limit trade with countries that do not protect religious freedom	30	42	21	5	1
Leave the European Convention on Human Rights	11	10	22	17	41
Ban the sale of all petrol or diesel cars	8	16	31	21	25

Appendix B: In the last five years has your church leadership encouraged you/your church...?

	Openly and clearly	Subtly or implicitly	Not at all
To support or oppose a particular party	1	6	93
To support or oppose a particular politician	2	7	92
To get involved in party politics	4	16	80
To support or oppose a particular policy	13	26	60
To vote	27	31	42