Introduction from the CEO

The Evangelical Alliance is the largest and oldest body serving evangelical Christians in the UK. Since 1846, we've been uniting Christians and making their voices heard in the corridors of power. We've also been equipping churches for mission; inspiring them to drive the spiritual, social and physical transformation of their communities.

In John 17 – the final prayer of Jesus – Christ prays: “I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.” We believe that the unity Jesus prayed for is reflected in the church coming together, setting aside denominational differences, and working together for the gospel.

This is an exciting and challenging time to be a part of this organisation that I'm so privileged to lead. Our annual report, included in this document, gives you a flavour of the projects, programmes and campaigns that we've been involved in over the past year and just how we are making a difference. We remain committed to our vision of together making Jesus known and are excited to welcome a diverse range of graduates to our team.

Thank you for taking the time to consider applying to our Graduate Scheme. We're praying that God brings the right people to us.

Evangelical Alliance

About the Evangelical Alliance

The Evangelical Alliance joins together hundreds of organisations, thousands of churches and tens of thousands of individuals for the sake of the gospel. Working across the UK, with offices in London, Cardiff, Stockport, Glasgow and Belfast, our members come together from across denominations, locations, age groups and ethnicities, all sharing a passion to know Jesus and make Him known. Today our dedication to serving the church, and society at large, is as strong as ever.

Like the evangelicals who have gone before us – those who abolished the slave trade, those who reformed our justice system, those who championed education for all – we are dedicated to blessing those around us as we worship God with all that we have and all that we are.

Today it is evangelicals who are at the heart of debt counselling, street pastors, night shelters and food-banks. Today it is active evangelical faith that is making a profound difference throughout our communities for the sake of the gospel. We speak up on behalf of those who are maligned and marginalised, affirming freedoms and proclaiming the good news of Jesus in words and in action.

We love Jesus and we want everyone in the UK to be given an opportunity to know Him. We love His church, and we will do all we can to unite evangelicals, building confidence in the gospel and speaking as a trusted voice into society to see it changed for Him.

The Evangelical Alliance

Graduate scheme

The Evangelical Alliance is pleased to announce it is offering another year of its successful graduate scheme.

We are offering up to eight paid roles across our offices as part of a programme looking to equip and release some of the best and the brightest talent to serve the UK church. These posts are aimed at both graduates and those who have gained equivalent life experience.

We have designed a training programme incorporating weekly content from a range of contributors. This will include theological input, understanding our cultural context, leadership, communications, personal development and much more. You will report to a line manager who will oversee and manage your workload, and you will have opportunities to develop mentoring-style relationships. There will be interaction with the other graduates on the scheme as well as the wider staff team.

The main training component will be delivered for two hours on a Tuesday afternoon, which must be working time for each of the posts. Other training will be delivered on an ad hoc basis. Successful applicants will also attend and participate in regular prayer gatherings and engage in team-wide worship and wider staff gatherings.

The scheme will run from the week commencing 8 September 2025 until 22 May 2026. There may be some flexibility in working hours, and these should be discussed at interview and agreed with line managers.

We are offering the following posts:

Belfast – Northern Ireland associate – three days (21 hours) per week – one or two posts. Candidates will be passionate about serving the wider church in Northern Ireland and/or interested in church engagement in politics, the media and wider public life. You will have an understanding of the major issues of public debate in Northern Ireland and will be able to connect biblical teaching to some of these issues.

Glasgow – Scotland associate – three days (21 hours) per week – one post. Candidates will be interested in research in public policy and have a desire to see the evangelical church engaged in these issues and growing in its mission. You will have a good knowledge of political structures and processes in Scotland and be comfortable communicating issues from an evangelical Christian perspective.

London (negotiable) – research associate – three or four days (21/28 hours) per week – one post. This post will play a key role supporting our research into evangelical Christians in the UK. With strong research and analysis skills, you will be highly organised and able to co-ordinate a programme of work. You will be comfortable communicating findings to diverse audiences and able to express complex ideas carefully and concisely.

London – people and culture associate – four days (28 hours) per week – one post. Candidates will contribute to the development of good practice relating to workplace wellbeing and culture, and be interested in research projects contributing to the improvement of employment practice, alongside administering records and events.

London – advocacy associate – three or four days (21/28 hours) per week – one post. Candidates will have an interest in public life and public policy, with strong political awareness and the ability to grasp complex issues. You will feel at home investigating and communicating diverse policy issues from an evangelical Christian perspective.

London – OPC/South Asian Forum associate – three days (21 hours) per week – one post. Candidates will have an understanding of and interest in the emerging intercultural church conversation in the UK today and specific knowledge and experience of the South Asian Christian community in the UK. You will have the ability to research and deliver projects in these areas and develop engaging and creative content.

London – Being Human associate – three or four days (21/28 hours) per week – one post. Candidates will be passionate about communicating ideas and stories to help everyday Christians live out and share the biblical vision of what it means to be human. You will be involved in creating content, communicating to diverse audiences and providing administrative support to the Being Human project.

Applicants are welcome to apply for more than one post. In order to do so, they will need to complete the generic application form and make it clear either in their covering letter or on the application form itself which roles they wish to apply for. Some roles request answers to specific questions and applicants will need to ensure that this is done for each role for which they wish to be considered.

These posts are subject to an Occupational Requirement that the post holder is a committed evangelical Christian under Part 1 of Schedule 9 to the Equality Act 2010 or the equivalent in each part of the UK.

1 Corinthians 12:12

What an incredible year it has been! First, I want to say thank you – we are so grateful to the more than 5,000 new personal members who joined the Evangelical Alliance this year. We remain so thankful to the many who have been with us for longer too and we look forward to journeying together as we continue to serve our membership wholeheartedly.

There have been countless highlights – we have been so encouraged as we have equipped many churches, organisations and individuals to make Jesus known this year, and our range of innovative mission and discipleship resources continue to be well received. The many opportunities we have had to engage with policymakers continue to be a great blessing, and we have spoken up wherever possible on behalf of evangelicals. It has also been wonderful to celebrate the 10-year anniversary of our One People Commission; this vital work continues to seek to bring unity across all ethnicities.

Across the four nations of the UK, we have cheered on local church leaders, supporting and helping our members on the ground wherever God has positioned you.

It's been a great personal joy for me to minister and visit many member ministries; the breadth of churches we serve is a delight and I have also loved seeing many people give their lives to Jesus.

I am so grateful to the amazing staff team and board that I serve with. However, the Evangelical Alliance is not a staff team; it is a membership organisation, and I am profoundly thankful to every church, organisation and personal member who stands with us. Let's continue to make Jesus known together throughout the United Kingdom.

Every blessing,

Legacies	12.2%

Investment income	1.0%
Income from charitable activities	0.9%
